Press Release

Be a Precinct Official

September 19, 2016, Monroe, NC – Precinct officials are needed to work the polls for the Tuesday, Nov. 8 Election.

Precinct officials are paid a flat rate for attending training, setting up sites the day before the election and working from 5:30 a.m. to approximately 8:30 p.m. on Election Day.

Qualifications include being a Union County registered voter (or become registered if eligible); must not be a candidate or relative of a candidate on the ballot; and must not be an elected government official, hold office with a political party or be a treasurer for a candidate or political party. In addition, precinct officials should be computer proficient and have reliable transportation.

If you're looking for a way to fulfill your civic duty and make extra money, this is certainly a great way to do just that. If interested, please call the Union County Board of Elections at 704-283-3809, e-mail union.boe@ncsbe, or go to: www.co.union.nc.us/Government/BoardofElections.
