A Christian Perspective on Death: An Author Speaks

March 12, 2014, Monroe, NC – Rev. Thomas M. Leighow will speak on death from a Christian perspective and his new book, A Paradigm of Death: Understanding Death from God's Perspective at the Union County Public Library in Monroe on Thursday, March 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the library's Griffin Room. A book signing will follow, with copies of the book available for purchase from the author.

Rev. Leighow is a professor at the Charlotte Bible College and Seminary and also teaches courses on the Old Testament and world religions at Lee Park Church in Monroe. A lead teacher for the Bible Training Center for Pastors, Leighow also founded Raise Up in memory of Rebecca Ann Leighow, an organization to prepare local ministers in Uganda. He serves on the board of directors of African Children's Mission.

A Paradigm of Death addresses two of the most profound uncertainties that face man: the meaning of life and the meaning of death. Written from a Christian perspective, Leighow's book lends assistance to those who either fear death or are dealing with the loss of a loved one.

The program is free and open to the public. The Monroe Library is located at 316 E. Windsor Street in Monroe.
