

OffenderWatch

Protect you and your children against sexual predators by visiting the new sex offender registry offered by the Union County Sheriff's Office. To search and view registered sex offenders residing in Union County, visit www.co.union.nc.us/ucso/index.htm and select the "Union County Sex Offender Registry" option.

Unique features of OffenderWatch include:

- Easy to use
- Provides information on registered sex offenders, such as their name, address, offense and nature of conviction, description, photo, scars and tattoos and other information as the law allows.
- Email alert system enables you to stay continually informed about sex offenders who may move into your area.
- The email alert system monitors addresses so you don't have to.
- By signing up for the sexual offender email alert, you will receive a return email from Sheriff Cathey notifying you of sexual predators living within a one mile radius of each address you choose to register.
- You can register as many addresses you want. Addresses can include your home, church, day care center, schools and homes of friends.
- Automatic emails notify you when a sexual predator registers at an address within a one mile radius of the addresses you list.

www.co.union.nc.us/ucso/index.htm