UNION POWER WARNS OF SCAMMERS POSING AS COOPERATIVE PERSONNEL

September 25, 2014- Monroe, N.C. – Union Power is warning members that men posing as Union Power personnel are visiting members in Union County subdivisions, asking to talk with them about saving money on their bills. The men have also requested to speak with some members about solar energy.

Members should be aware that these men are not Union Power employees or representatives of the Cooperative. Members should not give personal information about their account, either over the phone or in person. If members doubt the identity of someone claiming to represent Union Power, please call Union Power's office at 704-289-3145. Members should also call the local authorities to report such activity.

Union Power Cooperative is a member-owned electric cooperative, which provides electric service to more than 70,000 member accounts in Union, Stanly, Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, and Rowan counties.
