Volunteers Needed to Help Get Building Ready to Open

October 23, 2014, Monroe, NC – The Union County Christmas Bureau is ready to move into its new building location at 501 E. Franklin Street in Monroe and needs volunteers to help get the building ready to open.

The 501 E. Franklin Street location will be used as a distribution site. Applications for assistance will continue to be taken at the Division of Social Services at 1212 W. Roosevelt Boulevard in Monroe.

The Christmas Bureau is continually seeking volunteers, but help is especially needed on Monday, Oct. 27 and Tuesday, Oct. 28 to clean the new building and move items out of a storage unit into the building. Trucks or trailers are also needed to move and store items.

If you are able to help, call the Union County Volunteer Services Coordinator Gloria Haney at 704-296-4312 or sign up to help on Monday or Tuesday at www.signupgenius.com/go/christmas195.
