Monroe Library Hosts 1st College Day

October 12, 2015, Monroe, NC – The Union County Public Library in Monroe is hosting the 1st College Day on Oct. 17 from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Representatives from universities in North and South Carolina will provide admissions information and answer questions. Informative seminars and panel discussions will be offered throughout the day for students and parents. Seminars include Acing the College Interview and Student Athletes: Balancing Class Work with Sports. A College Foundation representative will discuss financial aid and paying for college. Library staff members will showcase test preparation databases available through NC Live and Universal Class.

“We are very excited to host our first College Day,” organizer Gypsy Houston said. “We want to make sure that the idea of college or post-secondary education is in the front of Union County students’ minds.”

All Union County High School students, teachers and parents are encouraged to attend this free event.

For more information please contact Gypsy Houston at 704-283-8184 ext. 232 or ghouston@union.lib.nc.us.
