Parks and Recreation is Bringing the Park Experience to You

August 2, 2015, Monroe, NC - Union County Parks and Recreation, in partnership with local municipalities and various parks and recreation committees, would like to bring the “outdoor classroom” to you.

Union County has renovated one of its fleet vans to create a “Recreation Mobile Station”, much like the “book mobiles” of the past. The van is outfitted with various programming materials designed to introduce all age groups to the benefits of getting outside and enjoying a healthier lifestyle.

Union County park rangers are working with local parks and recreation directors and their committees to bring the van to your area on a rotational basis to support joint recreational opportunities and special events.

For more information, call Jim Chaffin, assistant director of Union County Parks and Recreation, at 704-843-3919 (ext. 22).
